George Wilson didn't call me... Although I've been in back to back meetings today... Did you want me to call him?

Hey Tom -

Please take a look at this video...it aired on the local news here in PHX the other night, about Tacomas and unintended acceleration. I've had a few inquiries about it and a few dealers are saying customers have called asking about it. I haven't heard anything about Tacomas and unintended acceleration, and a couple FTS's I spoke to hadn't either. I thought I'd pass it along to see if it needs to go up the food chain at all...

Thanks!

Attached you will find the new clip from Channel 5 regarding the braking/acceleration issue on the '07 Toyota Tacoma that we showed in the October 9th TDA meeting. If you have any questions, please feel free to give me a call.
